FRECKLES BROWN

Born in Wheatland, Wyoming on January 18, 1921, Warren G. (Freckles) Brown holds the distinction of being the world's oldest competing bull rider. He rode his first bull at 16 and has since been always in the top ranks. He has competed in rodeos all over the world including Montreal in 1967 and many times at the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City.

Freckles has said that the greatest thrill of his career was receiving a standing ovation at the National Finals in 1967 for his ride on a never before ridden bull by the name of Toranado.

Freckles is an Honored Guest of the Calgary Stampede and will be presenting the rodeo prizes.

Rodeo Announcers

WARREN COOPER

The Voice of Canadian Rodeo, Warren C. Cooper of Nanton, Alberta, will tell patrons the story of the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede as it unfolds on the arena floor.

Coop, as he is affectionately known to thousands of rodeo contestants and patrons across the country, has been the voice of the Calgary Stampede — “The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth” — for some thirty years.

Warren will tell Stampede patrons which contestant is coming out of which chute and will also give the time or points scored by each competitor, and relate historical and personality sketches of the cowboys between events. He also “clowns” with the rodeo clowns, acting as their “straight man” and contact man with the audience.

SENATOR CLEM McSPADDEN

Senator Clem McSpadden of Claremore, Okl., vividly describes each rodeo event as it happens in the arena. A veteran of fourteen years in the Oklahoma State Senate, Clem is a two time President of that body.

Clem has received many awards from the rodeo world, being selected in 1967 as Rodeo Man of the Year by the International Rodeo Management Commission.

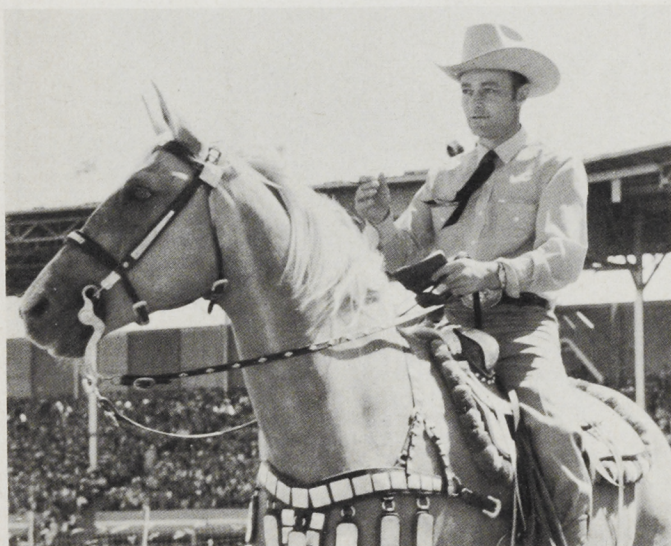

With his wife Donna, and two year old son Bart, Clem ranches on the Tub Handle Ranch in northeastern Oklahoma settled by his grandparents in 1886.

Arena Director

WINSTON BRUCE

Winston Bruce is no stranger to the rodeo infield, either in behind the chutes or out in front as Arena Director. Born in Stettler, Alberta, Winston has competed since 1952 in rodeo events and became Canadian Saddle Bronc Champion in 1954 and 1955. He was the Professional Saddle Bronc Champion for Canada in 1957 and 1958, and stood second in the World Championships in 1959. Finishing in the top three for the world for seven years, the culmination was in the Worlds Championship he won in 1961. Winston is the Official Arena Director for the Calgary Stampede, having taken over from Dick Cosgrave who retired in 1969.

THE PROFESSIONAL BUCKING HORSE

The professional bucking horses of rodeo work less, live as well, and last longer than any other "working horse" in the world. Even more than the slick thoroughbreds cared for on the racing farms, the shaggy, ill-tempered bronc is the pampered prince of the equine kingdom.

Rodeo brons buck in eight and ten second stretches. Even the busiest bucking horses are rarely turned out of the chute oftener than twice a week or more than thirty times a year. Thus, their "working" year is less than five minutes long.

No one can train a horse to buck. He either likes it or he doesn't. All his owners can do is to give him plenty of rest, feed and water and hope his morale stays high enough that he'll go on trying to flatten every rider who crawls on his back.

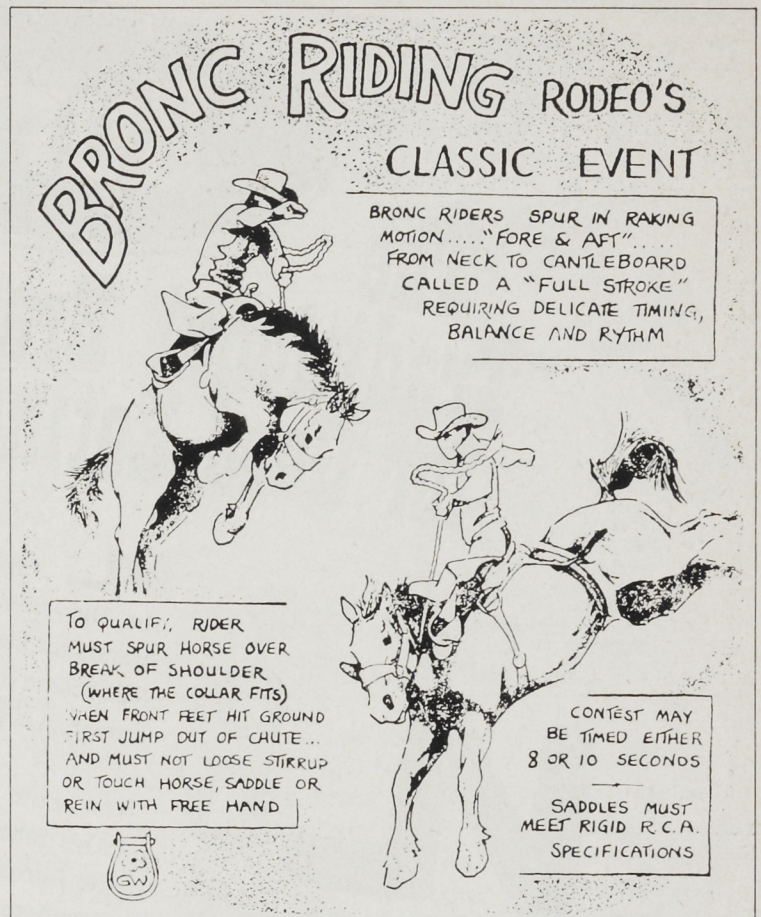

A big part of the morale building is letting the horse think he is winning. That's why the bronc ride in professional rodeo is limited to either eight or ten seconds, depending upon arena conditions.

Bucking horses are at their worst the first twenty jumps from the chute and a cowboy who got past that first storm would have an odds on chance of riding the bronc from there on out.

Cruel treatment of bucking horses is a myth among misguided animal lovers. Besides being specifically forbidden by a set of rules—written in harmony by the Canadian Rodeo Cowboys Association and the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals—mistreatment of bucking horses would be a good way for any rodeo stock contractor to commit economic suicide. Under-fed horses simply won't buck at all.

The average age of all bucking horses in professional rodeo is somewhere between twelve and fifteen years old and nearly every major bucking string boasts more than one old reliable past twenty.

The Traditional Brand for Good Eating...

N the most familiar cattle brand in the Old West, although Burns had many brands for his cattle and horses, the reverse NL became the most famous and well known, indeed, it is still in use on Burns cattle today.

The brand best represents Pat Burns' faith in his fellow man, it means "Never Lock", and Burns never had a lock on range gates anywhere.

As Burns cattle operations grew, so the brand became a byword across the West. Today Burns Foods Limited are continuing in the same tradition, and the is today well known as the brand from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

THE RODEO COWBOY

The rodeo cowboy earns no salary, draws no expense allowance, has no guaranteed annual wage. His only income is what he can win in a fiercely competitive sport, where he must win over not only the cowboys he competes against, but the rank animals he competes on. And he must pay for this privilege—entry fees that run up to $100 per event per rodeo.

The competing cowboy can win more in a minute than most men earn in a month. But, he can be killed or crippled for life by the wild flick of a hoof or the thrust of a horn—and he knows it.

What draws rational men to this contest, where the rules are stacked against the man to favor the animal? The money, you might say. This is part of the answer. If he's good, he might get rich. The world's champion all-round cowboy wins over $35,000 a year and his travelling expenses and entry fees cost him only half of that.

But if he's only average—and every sport has more also-rans than champions—he'll win closer to $3,000 a year, slim pickin's indeed in this high-cost era of inflation. Obviously, money isn't the whole answer.

Why does he do it? You can ask the cowboys themselves. Their answers are neither articulate nor very revealing. One battered veteran puzzled long over this strange question and answered at length: "well, I'm sure not bothered by insurance salesmen."

The answer lies in the nature of men who answer a challenge—the challenge of a bronc "that can't be rode" or a roping time that can't be bettered. It is not an unusual phenomenon. The pioneers answered the challenge of the wilderness. The businessmen answer the challenge of new markets. Man still answers the smaller challenge of unclimbed mountains while he prepares to answer the greatest challenge — travel in space.

The cowboy competes partly from boastfulness, partly on a bet and partly from sheer bravery. He chooses rodeo because he's willing to ride against the odds as long as he can ride in freedom.

In saddle bronc riding, if he draws an animal he's never seen before, he'll find out how he bucks, how best to set his saddle and where to take the rein. Who does he ask? The other bronc riders who are trying to beat him.

In steer wrestling, whether he wins depends on how fast he can catch a running steer jumping from the back of his highballing horse. To keep the steer running straight, he asks someone to haze for him. Who does he ask? Another steer wrestler entered in the same event.

It doesn't occur to a cowboy that he can improve his own chances of winning by lying just a little about the bronses or slowing up just a touch on the steers. In any other sport, this would be called sportsmanship, a word seldom heard in rodeo.

In rodeo this is a quality of honesty so taken for granted that it doesn't have a name. It's simply part of being a man.

The cowboys' herds nowadays are whizzed down super-highways in big trucks by contract hauler. His cattle are calmed by tranquilizers and branded in chutes. He may ride the range in a pickup truck and turn on the television at night like everybody else. But in the arena he's still a cowboy. There you'll find him, a sound horse under him, a stout rope in his hand, riding the last frontier.

PRIZE MONEY

A rodeo's prize money payoff actually is a combination of the purse money put up by that rodeo's committee and entry fees paid by each cowboy who is competing there.

This total is divided in established percentages based on the number of go-rounds at that rodeo. (To define a go-round, this is when each contestant has competed on one head of stock, comparable to tournament golfers being paid after each eighteen holes.)

The number of go-rounds decided upon is a simple matter of arithmetic; the number of entries in an event versus the number of performances to be held. The rodeo committee and their stock contractor normally determine how many go-rounds are to be held.

After the pre-determined number of go-rounds are completed and paid off, the highest total markings—in riding events—and the lowest total times in roping and steer wrestling events—result in another and final payoff called "the average".

When prize money for each go-round comes to less than $1,000.00 only four places are paid, in percentages of 40, 30, 20 and 10 percent. And this rule applies to the average as well.

If, however, the go-round total is $1,000.00 or more, size places must be paid, split in the following percentages: 34, 26, 19, 9, 7 and 5. Again this also applies to the average.

With only two go-rounds held, go-rounds and average are equal in money; but for three go-rounds, the average payoff rises to one and one-half that in each go-round; in four go-rounds, the average is pushed to twice the amount of each go-round; and with five or more go-rounds, the average must total three times the amount in a go-round.

Rodeo Officials

Those who judge rodeo events must be C.R.C.A. members in good standing and active contestants themselves. Where purse money is $500.00 or over per event judges must be approved by the Association. A judge's decision is final. Later proved in error, he can be denied further judging jobs. Wages run from $25 to $100 per day depending on the size of the rodeo.

RIDING JUDGES draw all stock to be ridden. Identified by number, animals for each event are selected lottery fashion, i.e., rider's name is called then a number picked sight unseen from the total, usually held high in a hat over the judge's head.

Marketing rides, judges post themselves on either side of the chute gate, allowing animal and rider to come out between them. Action is marked separately; figures used are 1 - 25 on the rider's action. 1 - 25 on the animal's antics. The four markings are total for the score.

FLAG JUDGES monitor time events (steer wrestling and all roping). Stock is drawn the same way as in riding events. Time is taken between flags, one judge at the starting scoreline, the other in the field.

LINE JUDGE decides legality of the start, field judge signals completion of the tie or thrown steer, as case may be. In roping events field judge must allow six seconds after signalling for time, to see if tie holds. If animal kicks free in that period, roper gets no time. The same men may serve as judges in both riding and timed events.

Wild Cow Milking Contest

Purse $1,260 And Trophy

When the signal to start is given, a troop of cowboys dash madly down the arena and into the herd. Their ropers follow on horseback. As soon as a rider gets his rope over the head of a cow, he dismounts from his horse, "anchors" the cow at the end of his lariat and that is the signal for the milker to get into action.

Trying to make a wild cow hold still long enough to pump a couple of inches of milk into a small milk bottle is a feat in itself.

Assuming that he does manage to obtain his required two inches of milk, he then runs back to the judges' stand at the west end of the arena.

The contestant with the required amount of milk in his bottle who gets there the fastest, is adjudged the winner.

Brahma Bull Riding Contest

Purse $9,200 And Trophy

Riding to be done with one hand and loose rope, with or without hand hold. Rope must have bell. Bull will be ridden eight seconds. Rider will be disqualified for being bucked off or touching animal with free hand. (Synopsis R.C.A. rules)

RODEO CLOWNS

Clowns in rodeo are not specialists in comedy. They are there to prevent tragedy. They are brave men first and funny men only secondarily. And the real reasons for their presence in the arena — the bucking bulls — is no laughing matter.

Despite their bulk Brahma Bulls can move like panthers, they hold no fear of man or horseback either and will attack without hesitation. For that reason, mounted pick-up men cannot be used to help rescue the cowboy. The bulls simply won't let horses get close.

The clown moves in to distract the bull, to allow the cowboy to reach safety.

Often you will see the wildly garbed clowns competing in contest events — wrestling steers or riding broncs — but few contestants have any desire to trade jobs with the rodeo clown. His is a lonely profession.

EATON'S

Boys' Wild Steer Riding Contest

Purse $1,270 And Trophy

The old-timer sat atop the corral fence and chuckled as he watched 10- and 12-year-old youngsters try to ride fiery young steers.

"So long as we have youngsters who will take part in this event — the wild steer riding event at the Calgary Stampede — we'll never run out of cowboys for the major events at the Stampede."

Many champions in major rodeo events obtain their first lesson in riding wild stock in the steer riding event at the Calgary Stampede. Their equipment is simple. All they need when they enter is a soft cotton "bull rope". Show officials supply the livestock and the cowbell.

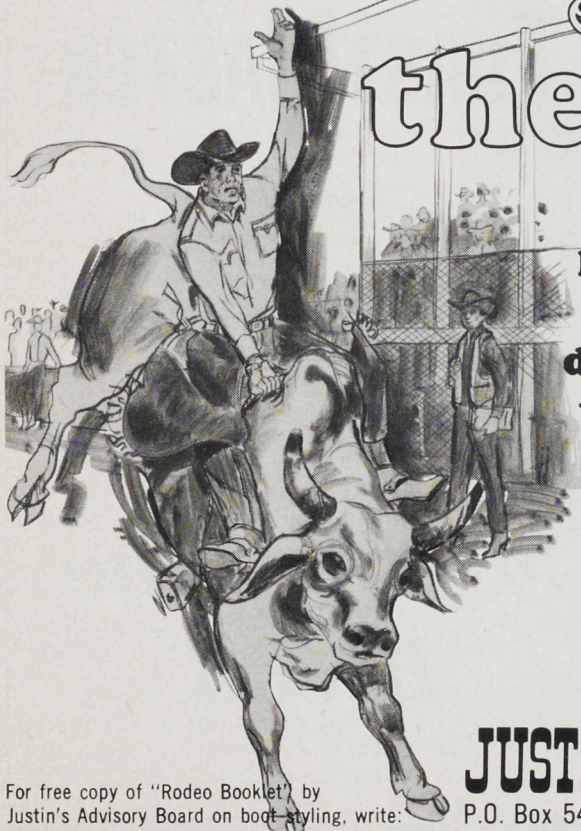

Each contestant is required to stay aboard his animal for the required number of seconds and if he moves his feet fore and aft, he can chalk up additional points.

In addition to day-money, the youngsters can win final money and some beautiful trophies.

The steers and young heifers used in this event are chosen with great care. Officials attempt to grade the animals for size and weight so that each youngster gets an equal chance to display his riding ability.

You'll Find Justins where the action is!

Since the beginning of rodeo, Justin has been in the arena ... where the action demands ruggedness as well as comfort.

Justins are rarin' to go when other boots are calling it quits. That's because they're crafted in a tradition of quality begun in 1879 ... quality that insures perfect fit and long lasting durability.

Rangeland Derby Outfits will compete for more than $44,000 in Cash Purses

A sage once said that "imitation is the sincerest form of flattery". This is certainly true of the world's strangest and most exciting horse race, the famous Rangeland Derby or Chuckwagon Race, one of the features of the annual Calgary Exhibition and Stampede.

Since the event gained world-wide publicity by reason of its wildness and thrills, other places in Canada and the United States have tried to copy it but with little success because it is a race that has its roots in the range districts of the Canadian west and with its wagons, outriders and the scores of horses which are required to stage it properly, it is much too expensive to cart around on the scale at which it is presented at the Calgary Stampede.

The chuckwagon race originated at the 1923 Calgary Exhibition and Stampede. It stemmed from a wild dash across the prairie, raced by a bunch of roundup wagons as the cowboys headed for town after the roundup had been completed. Guy Weadick, originator and first manager of the Calgary Stampede, visualized a race where the roundup wagons could participate but under a clear set of rules.

The first series of races was planned and held in 1923, and from that day on the race has grown in interest and public appreciation.

At the present time the chuckwagon races at the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede involve a purse distribution of $44,000. The rules of the race are simple enough. One entry consists of a regulation roundup wagon but one which is stripped to the bare essentials. It is hauled by four thoroughbred horses and is flanked by four mounted outriders. There are usually four wagons to each heat which means that when the race is ready to start, 32 horses and four wagons are involved.

Before the start of the race, the four outfits take up places in the centre field. Tent poles and canvas are slung from the back of each wagon and the cook stoves must be on the ground.

All the outriders are dismounted. At the starting signal, one man throws the tent poles back into the wagon. Another snatches up and tosses the stove into the wagon. By this time the driver has gotten the team into action. He is required to drive around a set of barrels so as to execute a figure "8". He then heads his team and wagon for the racetrack and the wild half-mile dash begins. The wagons which make the best time in each heat are the winners of the day's money and the outfit which chalks up the best time for the week is the winner of the big final money.

Numerous penalties can be assessed against the entrants if they fail to comply with the rules. A whole battery of judges and officials watch every yard of the race from vantage points, and woe betide the outfit which infringes upon any of the many rules.

"The chuckwagon races as staged at the Calgary Stampede make the old Roman chariot races look pretty tame," one Hollywood motion picture director stated after seeing the races for the first time.

Wild Horse Race Contest

Purse $2,250 And Trophy Plus $750.00 For Winning Team

The wild horse race is a team event. It requires three men to handle a wild horse and the race is run in this manner. Sixteen outlaws are "spilled" down the runways and into the sixteen chutes in the Stampede arena. Each chute holds one horse. A sixteen-foot rope is attached to the halter of each horse, and the team of three men take up positions. At a signal from the starter, all 16 chute gates are thrown open and out come 16 wild unmanageable horses who previously to being shipped to the Calgary Stampede, had not been touched by human hands.

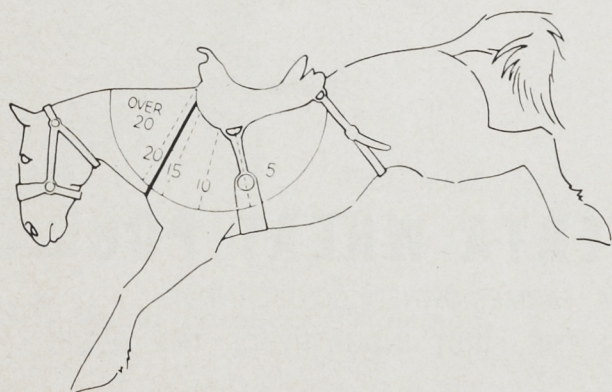

In this particular contest, all the teams draw for their horses. It is not a question of dashing to the chutes in quest of a small horse or a mild looking one. They draw for chute numbers and they must accept the horse that finally winds up in this particular chute.

HINTS ON JUDGING

In all the riding events the animal is scored on the basis of 1 to 25 points depending on his ability to unset a rider. Rider is scored also from 1 to 25 points on control of the ride, style and the important item of spurring.

Credit is to be given the rider who opens up on a horse right out of the gate, not feeling him out for a few jumps until some of the sting is gone.

Bronc riders spur with a raking motion; ideally, from high as they can reach in the neck to the cantle, called a full stroke. The most obvious deciding factor that culls the men from the boys is the spurring done ahead of where the collar fits. Spurring means just what it says, not just waving your feet around.

(With toes out, spurs against horse)

NEAR PERFECT	25	Extending stroke well over break of shoulder to high in neck
Better than Average	20	High in shoulders but not consistently getting over break
AVERAGE	15	Reaching between flat of shoulder to high in shoulder
Weaker than Average	10	Front of cinch to flat of shoulder
SORRY	5	Not getting ahead of cinch

Boot Cut™ Lee RIDERS®

...Especially designed for extra full fit over cowboy boots! The new look in Lee Riders® is the "Boot Cut" in addition to slim or regular. These authentic Western pants (as West as West can be) are cowboy-tailored for a slim, snug fit from waist to knee, then slightly flared for extra room over boot tops and heel. No matter how far you stretch or bend, there's no need to continually pull or adjust pant legs down over boots... Lee Riders® "Boot Cut" keeps 'em in the right place. And, Lee's exclusive Western denim is built for extra rugged wear, and Sanforized® for lasting fit. Look for this branded LEE Label...at better stores everywhere.

Flare Square Salutes Sport And Recreation

Step into the Calgary Stampede's Flare Square — and enjoy an experience that may change your life. For this is the Salute to Sport and Recreation, where you will learn to get the most out of your leisure hours. Whether you learn to correct your golf stance or go home with a brand new hobby, you'll be glad you took the time to see the biggest and best Flare Square yet.

There is so much to see and do at Flare Square and in the Stampede Corral "Sportacular" that it may be wise to plan your visit carefully. Are you a golfer? You won't want to miss Australia's Bruce Devlin. A hockey fan? How would you like to meet Bobby Orr and learn the secret of his fantastic slap shot? A gymnast? Then you'll want to watch the SCATS, the group of 24 young California girls acclaimed as one of the finest precision gym teams in the world.

"Name any sport: we've got it." Cricket. Baseball. Fencing. Roller skating. Karate. Archery. Diving. Parachuting. Local, Canadian, and world champions and experts in these and many other sports will be on hand at Flare Square. And you won't just watch, you'll participate. Go ahead, shoot an arrow. Smack that golf ball. Get up on that bicycle-like apparatus and have the experts measure your physical condition.

You're not a sports fan? Come to Flare Square anyway; there are enough recreational activities displayed to keep you busy for a lifetime. At Flare Square you will see demonstrations of winter activities such as skiing, bobsledding and skating. Summer recreational fun ranging from sailplaning to scuba diving will be shown in detail.

Camping, climbing, cooking, crocheting, and kite-flying are but a small fraction of the activities on display for your enjoyment. The most rugged outdoorsman and the backyard gardener will both come away from Flare Square knowing how to get more out of their leisure time.

Did you know that Flare Square, one of the largest exhibitions of its kind anywhere, is staged entirely by volunteers? Now in its sixth successful year, Flare Square is the result of the visions and labours of volunteers who use their leisure time 12 months a year to create a truly unique show.

See it and you'll agree that it's probably the most professional "amateur" show anywhere.

A Paddock Primer for Puzzled Patrons

Q. WHAT IS PARI-MUTUEL BETTING?

- A. The pari-mutuel method of wagering was devised by Pierre Oller in Paris in 1872 to keep his money and that of his friends among themselves.

The distinguishing feature of mutuel betting is that it is the public who makes the odds and is a method by which the backer (bettor) wagers what he pleases on the horses of his choice. Another feature is the absolute fairness of the system.

Pari-mutuel betting means, as the name implies, mutual betting or wagering among each other. In this operation the race course merely acts as a stakes-holder, deducting from the total pool the amount permitted legally by law. (This is 5% provincial tax, 5% to horse owners in the form of purchases, 4% to the Exhibition Association for salaries, maintenance and profit, and 1/2 of 1% to the federal government for supervision.) The win price is decided by dividing into the straight betting pool the amount of money bet on the winner. The result is the "win" mutuels price. "Place" and "Show" prices are figured substantially the same, all under federal government supervision.

Q. WHERE DOES THE BETTING TAKE PLACE?

- A. At Victoria Park two areas are used for the buying of pari-mutuel tickets and the cashing of tickets by those who have selected winners.

The main betting area is at the east end of the grandstand at ground level, and the second is in the new Clubhouse area on the mezzanine which features the new Winners Circle Lounge, Plate Room and Futurity Lounge.

Q. WHAT ARE THE VARIOUS WAGERS THAT ONE CAN MAKE?

- A. There are seven ways of wagering on the races at Victoria Park.
- Win or straight.
 - Second or place.
 - Third or show.
 - Combination or straight, place and show.
 - Daily Double.
 - Exactor.
 - Quinella.

These may be outlined as follows:

A.) WIN OR STRAIGHT

When you wager on a horse to win the horse must win for you to cash your ticket.

B.) SECOND OR PLACE

When you wager on a horse to place you have two chances to collect. Should the horse run first or second your ticket is good, but the odds are not as good as for a straight as the bettor has two chances.

C.) THIRD OR SHOW

When you wager on a horse to show you have three chances to collect. Should the horse run first, second or third your ticket is good, but odds are lower than for straight or place betting.

D.) COMBINATION OR STRAIGHT, PLACE AND SHOW

When you wager a $6 combination on a horse you, in effect bet $2 to win, $2 to place and $2 to show and your ticket is cashable if the horse of your choice finishes in the first three.

E.) DAILY DOUBLE

The Daily Double is a wager in which the bettor attempts to select the winners of the first two races. Daily Double selections must be made and the ticket for both selections purchased prior to the closing of this pool before the running of the first half of the Daily Double.

F.) EXACTOR

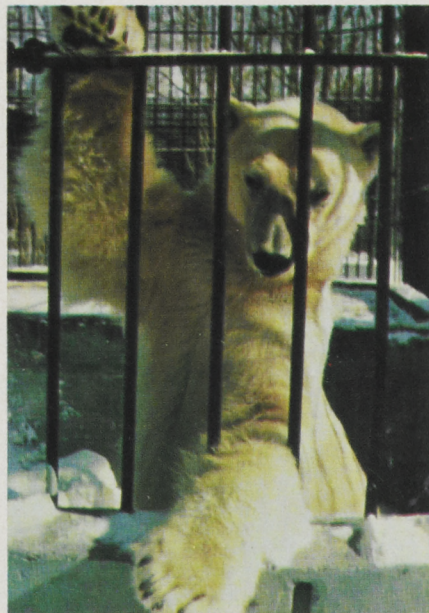

The Exactor is a wager in which the bettor attempts to select the first two horses in the fifth race in the exact order of finish i.e. if one selects 1 and 6, 1 must win and 6 finish second for a winning selection. Should there be a dead-heat for first this will constitute the Exactor. If there is a dead-heat for second, payoffs will be on tickets naming the winner and each of the second place finishers in the correct order.

G.) QUINELLA

The Quinella is a separate pool on the last race only, in which the bettor attempts to select the first two horses that fill the first and second places, however they finish. Should there be a dead-heat for first place the pool will be divided among holders of the two horses finishing first. Should there be a dead-heat for second place, payoffs will be made on tickets coupling the winning horses with each of the horses finishing second.

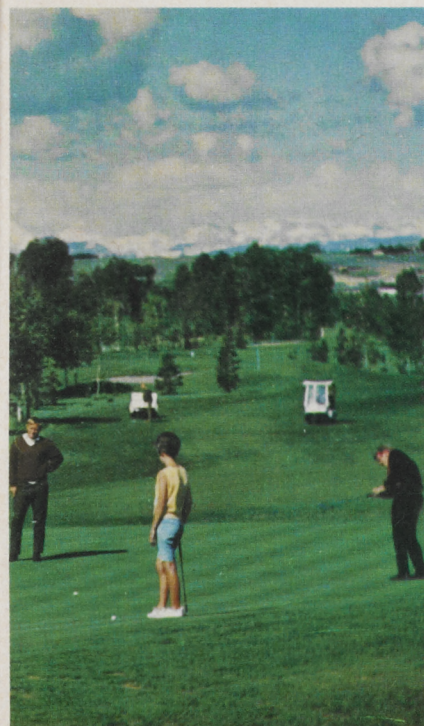

captivating calgary

There's a lot more to Calgary than just the Stampede. Although the same spirit that is symbolized by the Stampede has given the city its zest for life. Capture the spirit of the frontier mixed with a city very much in the twentieth century. Plush hotels and soaring buildings rise above the city creating a skyline that rivals the nearby Rocky Mountains, only forty miles away.

You'll find everything from the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra to discotheques. Plus Canada's largest zoo and dinosaur park, live theatre and a lively arts centre. Our challenging golf courses, swimming pools and dozens of beautiful parks await your pleasure. And within minutes of the city you can ski, fish and hunt.

But, take time out and look at Calgary's industrial potential. We have several, planned industrial parks and abundant low-cost supplies of natural gas, water and power. There is room to grow and prosper. Call Ken Ford at 269-0222 or clip the coupon. Captivated? You soon will be.

THE GREAT WESTERN GARMENT CO. LTD. EDMONTON

Top Men in World Rodeo have Competed at the Stampede

In the 47 years which have elapsed since the Stampede or championship cowboy contests have become a feature of the annual Calgary Stampede, every title winning cowboy in the history of Rodeo, with the exception of steer ropers (there isn't any steer roping event at the Calgary Stampede) have contested at the Calgary Show.

It is the proud boast of the Calgary Stampede that more cowboys compete, more champions appear and more livestock is turned out of the chutes than at any rodeo anywhere else in the world.

In the past, some contestants have viewed this claim with some doubt — that is, until they have competed here and the majority of the "doubting Thomases" usually go home singing the praises of the Calgary Stampede, after they have competed in it.

The list of champions at the Calgary show is growing steadily and each year finds new names added to the list. The ghosts of former rodeo greats ride through the centre-field and wherever cowboys gather, they live again the exploits of the champions of former years.

Here is the list of the winners of all championship events at the Calgary Stampede since 1923, the year the Stampede was "wedded" to the annual Calgary Exhibition.

Canadians can be proud of the Calgary Stampede, which for many years has provided an exciting and colourful Western Show.

The success of the Stampede and its Flare Square Program is due to the splendid work done by a nucleus of key people backed up enthusiastically by thousands of volunteers and warm-hearted citizens.

I am confident the 1971 Flare Square Program, which features the World of Sport and Recreation, will build new and close bonds among sportsmen and spectators and I am pleased that the Federal Government through the Fitness and Amateur Sport Directorate, was able to participate in this exciting event.

Visitors will carry home pleasant memories of a unique panorama of sport and recreation programs well run and enhanced by the hospitality of friendly people.

Glossary of Rodeo Terms

Association Saddle — Any saddle built to definite R.C.A. specifications and design and used in saddle bronc riding. It may belong either to the contestant or the rodeo producer.

Barrier — A rope stretched across the front end of the box from which the roper's or steer wrestler's horse comes when the barrier flag drops. According to the arena conditions, the stock is given a predetermined head start, or score, marked by a scoreline.

Breaking The Barrier — If the contestant rides through or breaks the barrier before it is released a penalty of ten seconds is added to this time.

Contract Acts — Any act that is retained on a contract by the rodeo committee to perform in the arena. Contract acts do not compete for prize money.

Day Money — The amount of prize money paid to the winners of each go-round.

Entry Fee — The money paid by a contestant to the rodeo secretary before he can enter an event or rodeo. The size of the fee varies with the amount of the rodeo purse, ranging from $10 at the smallest rodeos to a maximum of $100. Contestants must pay a separate entry fee for every event they compete in.

Hazer — A cowboy who rides along beside a steer on the opposite side from the steer wrestler to keep the steer from running away from the steer wrestler's horse.

No Time — When a flag fieldman waves "No Time" it means that the contestant has not caught or thrown his animal properly and receives no time on that animal in that go-round but is still entitled to compete in the next go-round.

Pickup Man — A mounted cowboy who helps the rider off a bronc when the ride is completed. The pickup man then removes the flank strap from the bronc and leads it out of the arena.

Pigging String — A short piece of soft rope by which a roper ties together the feet of a roped calf or steer.

Prize Money — Money paid to the winners of the various events in a rodeo. It is comprised of the purse put up by the rodeo committee and the entry fees paid by all of the contestants.

Pulling Leather — When a bronc rider holds on to the horn or any part of the saddle, he is said to be pulling leather.

Pulling leather disqualifies a saddle bronc rider if it is done before the ride is completed.

Score — The distance between the chute opening and the scoreline, or the amount of head start given to a steer or calf in a roping or steer wrestling event. The length of the score is usually determined by the size of the arena or other local conditions.

Untie Man — An arena employee who, after the flagman has signalled that a tie has qualified, releases the calf or steer from both the rope and the pigging string. Untie men usually work in pairs.

Average — Contestants in rodeos with more than one go-round are paid off in prize money for the best average of all go-rounds. The winner of the average is the winner of that event at the rodeo.

Go-Round — That part of a rodeo that is required to allow each contestant to compete on one head of stock. The number of go-rounds in a rodeo may vary from one in a small one-day contest to as many as seven or more in the larger rodeos.

Ground Money — When all the contestants entered in an event fail to qualify so that no one wins, the purse and entry fees for the event are split equally among all entrants in the event.

Jack Pot — An event for which no purse is put up by the rodeo. Winners split all or part of the entry fees.

Re-Rides — Another ride given to a bronc rider or a bull rider in the same go-round when the first ride is unsatisfactory for any of several reasons, such as horse falling, not bucking.
